ADLAI PULLS FARTHER AHEAD

—Lincoln Fall As Much As 1.90—

Nehawka's 3-In. Moisture Is Tops

Syracuse Gets 2.80, Geneva 2.70 From Tuesday Thunderstorms

A large area in parched southeastern Nebraska got heavy rains late Tuesday and Tuesday night with an unofficial three inches at Nehawka topping the list. Syracuse reported 2.80 inches and Geneva reported 2.70. Union reported 2.50 inches in less than an hour.

The rain came on the heels of a discouraging crop report and warnings that more rain was needed immediately to save even part of the dwindling corn crop. Wednesday's forecast called for more showers throughout most of the state.

The Weather Bureau said a line of heavy rainstorms formed along a line from Auburn to Tecumseh, Sterling, Cortland, Wilber and Geneva Tuesday. Another line formed from Cortland to Weeping Water. Both sets of storms moved northward.

Lightning struck two barns and a house during the storm and a tornado funnel was reported, but it did not touch the ground.

The Wesley Hilmers barn, one mile north of Cheney, was hit by lightning and burned to the ground. Lightning also struck a small barn that contained hay on the Ray Moser farm near Dorchester. It also burned to the ground.

Lightning hit a house in Lincoln causing a small fire. No one was reported injured during the storms.

A resident of Lodgepole reported a funnel cloud five miles south of Lodgepole at 5:49, but it did not get near the ground.

In the Dunbar area, which had 40 of an inch of rain, high winds blew the roof off a farm machine shed and a garage door in town was torn off.

The heavy rains began to fall after a severe weather forecast from the Weather Bureau which warned of severe thunderstorms in northeast Kansas, extreme southeast Nebraska, southern Iowa and northern Missouri.

Richard Cron, Otoe County Agent, recorded 2.80 inches at Syracuse. He said there may have been some soil erosion loss because the rain fell in 45 minutes.

A severe storm, including rain, hail and wind, struck the Auburn vicinity about 5 p.m. Tuesday. Robert Wilson, Nemaha County agent, reported many tree limbs down in Auburn and said quite a bit of hail accompanied the 1.82-inch rainfall.

'Help Considerably' Wilson said the moisture "will help the corn crop in the Auburn area considerably."

Cortland reported 1.50 inches of rain, with high winds, and Sterling reported a half inch, also with wind.

Southern Lancaster County points in the Princeton and Fifth areas reported very heavy rain early Tuesday evening. Hallam had the heaviest rain, 1.70 inches. Holland had .50 of an inch of rain and Panama observers reported about the same.

The Martell-Sprague area reported "a good inch" of rain accompanied by some wind. However there was no wind damage.

Earlier in the day, Hastings had received .50 of an inch of rain preceded by strong winds.

Lincoln got an hour-long heavy rain, driven by strong winds, measured unofficially at 1.9 inches in south Lincoln and 1.62 at the air base and 1.10 downtown. Another shower fell near midnight.

Western Rain Light In the western part of the state, Sidney was getting a light drizzle Tuesday evening, and it was raining in North Platte.

In central Nebraska, Grand Island was also getting light showers.

Upland, near the Kansas border at about the middle of southern Nebraska, reported 1.87 inches of rain and considerable hail between 2:30 and 3:30 Tuesday afternoon. The hail, up to three-fourths of an inch in diameter, caused heavy damage over a strip two miles wide to the northeast of Upland, the Weather Bureau reported.

A. E. Anderson, federal crop statistician, said the Lancaster County corn should be helped considerably by the rain. Any corn not already burned should "perk up" quite a bit, he said.

Lloyd Taylor, Culbertson, Dies In Crash

CULBERTSON, Neb. (U)—Lloyd Taylor, 41, president of the Culbertson Community Club and member of the town board, was killed Tuesday afternoon when his heavy propane gas truck overturned on Highway 6 five miles west of here.

Sheriff Wayne Hobe of Hitchcock county said it appeared Taylor sought to pass another truck and suddenly saw highway depart ahead. Then the sheriff said, Taylor appeared to have swerved his truck sharply onto a soft shoulder of the highway. The heavy vehicle rolled over one and half times.

Taylor, who operated a gas business, is survived by his widow Ann, a daughter Lorraine, 13, and a son, Douglas, 9.

The death made the 1956 traffic toll 163 compared to 162 a year ago.

Merger Plans Set By Labor Groups

LINCOLN Star Special OMAHA, Neb. — The unity committees of the Nebraska State Federation of Labor and the Nebraska CIO Industrial Union Council completed merger agreements in Omaha Tuesday. Details of the agreements, which were concluded after many months of study, will not be announced until they are approved by George Meany, president of the AFL-CIO.

Before the agreements reach Meany, they must be approved by the executive boards of the state organizations. After Meany's approval they go to the conventions of the separate organizations, scheduled for October 8 and then final for approval to the joint convention October 9.

Radford Snubs Soviet Power

Admiral Says Red Strength Is Overestimated In U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Adm. Arthur W. Radford says there is a marked tendency in this country to overestimate the airpower, missiles and other military strength of the Communists.

Radford, who holds the top military position as chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, gave this testimony before the Senate's Airpower Investigating subcommittee.

"There is good reason to believe that we normally overestimate the Communist capabilities in almost every respect," Radford said in closed door testimony made public by the subcommittee Tuesday after screening by the Pentagon. Radford testified June 25.

"I think we are in a dangerous position vis-a-vis the Communists in that respect to day, because there has been an almost hysterical assumption of great capabilities on the part of the Communists, some of which, in my opinion, actually do not exist," he said.

Radford, chief military adviser to President Eisenhower and Secretary of Defense Wilson, stoutly defended the administration's defense policies.

Crash Plans He disagreed sharply with Sen. Symington (D-Mo), chairman of the Senate group investigating relative U.S. and Soviet airpower, and other Democrats who have been urging crash programs for stepping up production of the jet B-52 bombers and long-range missiles.

Radford said new equipment would not bring the proper returns if there weren't qualified persons to operate them.

Instead of pouring more billions into additional B-52 long-range jet bombers, Radford said "I would urge the Air Force to come up with a better airplane and I don't care whether it is medium or heavy (bomber)."

Radford testified that new atomic and nuclear weapons will bring revisions in all the major services—Air Force, Navy and Army.

Soil Bank Grazing OK'd For Lancaster

21 Other Counties Added To Drought Area Classification In State

The U. S. Department of Agriculture Tuesday granted farmers in 22 Nebraska counties including Lancaster permission to graze cropland retired from production under the new soil bank program.

These were in addition to 15 counties in the state which had already received aid to relieve drought conditions and resulting shortages of livestock feed.

The new Nebraska counties are Anelapoe, Clay, Dodge, Fillmore, Franklin, Furnas, Gosper, Hamilton, Harlan, Holt, Howard, Jefferson, Lancaster, Madison, Merrick, Nuckolls, Otoe, Saunders, Seward, Sherman, Wayne and York.

Additionally Knox County, which had received grazing privileges earlier in 21 of its townships, was given county-wide grazing rights.

Asks Extension The governor reported late Tuesday that he had requested the Agriculture Department reconsider extending the deadline date for counties to sign up for soil bank grazing. The deadline was last Friday.

A talk Tuesday with Harry Frazer, director of Agriculture Services with the USDA, also disclosed that two counties had been denied drought classification by the Agriculture Department.

These counties were Blaine and Richardson. They were among a group of 11 counties still awaiting classification to drought status. The denials were the first received in the state.

The effect of naming them Drought areas have the right to graze land placed in acreage reserve under provisions of the soil bank.

Silage Not Allowed Gov. Anderson reported a telephone conversation with Sen. Roman Hruska late Tuesday reaffirmed the senator's and USDA's opinion that farmers cannot put soil bank crops into silage, nor use such crops for fodder. This would amount to these crops being harvested, the governor said, and would violate the soil bank principle.

Nebraska counties which have asked for aid but on which no report as yet has been received are Burt, Custer, Kearney, Pawnee, Phelps, Thayer, Valley, Washington, and Webster. Valley made its request Tuesday.

Lancaster County had requested the aid on five major points—rainfall lack, 60 per cent or normal; alfalfa, 50 per cent or normal; corn, 50 per cent or normal; pasture, 50 per cent or normal; and

Estes Bows Out Of Race

Backing Given To Stevenson; Second Place 'Deal' Denied

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Estes Kefauver bowed out of the presidential race Tuesday, asking his supporters to back Adlai Stevenson in the interests of Democratic party unity and victory.

This gave Stevenson such a boost that many Democrats said he has their party's presidential nomination cinched.

There also were predictions Kefauver may get the vice presidential nomination. He said Tuesday he has made no "deals."

Kefauver's unity move came at a time when the Republicans are heading into a fight over their vice presidential nomination. Until recently, the Democratic National Convention was expected to provide all the fireworks. But now Harold E. Stassen is promising to set off some of the Republican conclave with his attempt to unseat Vice President Nixon.

Second Largest Block Kefauver, who had amassed the second largest block of delegate strength for the Democratic convention starting in Chicago Aug. 13, announced his withdrawal at a late afternoon news conference.

He said he was convinced "Gov. Stevenson's delegate lead is such that he could be stopped only by throwing the convention into a deadlock."

"I would not want to be a party to this," Kefauver said. He added he felt he could make "a great contribution" to party unity and Democratic victory in the November presidential election by withdrawing as a candidate.

Victory More Important "Victory in November is more important than the victory in August," he said.

He reiterated he is not a candidate for vice president. Asked whether he would accept second place on the ticket, he replied that involved a lot of ifs.

In Chicago James A. Finnegan, Stevenson's campaign manager, said Kefauver's move creates "a very strong chance that Stevenson will be nominated on the first ballot."

In Albany, N. Y., one of Averell Harriman's campaign managers said his chances of winning the nomination are "brighter than ever."

The manager, Michael H. Pendergast, Democratic state chairman, said he was confident many Kefauver supporters would now go to the New York governor.

Sure Of Some Delegates But Stevenson was considered sure of at least a number of Kefauver delegates. For example, Charles E. Skillen, Democratic state chairman of Indiana, said

Demos Win Dixie Votes Despite Long NEW ORLEANS (U)—Two incumbent congressmen dealt a stunning blow to Gov. Earl Long's political prestige Tuesday night, easily winning Democratic renomination despite the governor's opposition.

Rep. T. A. Thompson defeated three Long-backed candidates in the 7th Dist. after two stumping tours by the governor in the stormy race. Thompson's margin was more than 2-1.

Rep. Otto Passman won over two opponents in the 5th Dist. by a 6-1 margin, despite statements by Long in support of Passman's opposition.

Long's pride also took a hard knock in the 8th Dist. his home district in two races. His sister Mrs. Clara Long Knott, trailed in her bid against Harold McSwain for a Board of Education post. His brother Rep. George Long was hard-pressed in the early stages before pulling ahead to win renomination.

Nomination in Democratic Louisiana is equivalent to election.

Faubus Wins LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (U)—Gov. Orval Faubus apparently was renominated for a second term over four opponents in Tuesday's Democratic preferential primary.

With 219,269 votes tabulated in unofficial returns from 1,900 of the state's 2,295 precincts, the count was:

Faubus 127,597, Jim Johnson of Crossett 58,923, Jim Snoddy of Alma 28,544, Ben F. Pippin of Little Rock 1,062, S. K. Prosser of Conway 1,123.

No 'Deal' Involved —Morrison

Why did Sen. Estes Kefauver withdraw from the presidential nomination race and did he make a "deal" with Adlai Stevenson, to whom he threw his support?

Frank Morrison of Lincoln, leader of the state Kefauver organization, was in Washington Monday with the senator when the decision was discussed with leading Kefauver supporters.

Morrison answered the two questions The Star has this:

"When a man comes out of the primaries a favorite, he is entitled to the nomination. That was the senator's feeling and that is why he withdrew."

"The decision was clean as a bound's tooth. Neither Stevenson or Kefauver made any deal."

Morrison did add, however, that he thought a Stevenson-Kefauver ticket would be "one of the strongest in the nation's history."

Stevenson will have a hard time persuading Kefauver to run for vice president, Morrison said, because the senator will shortly become chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee — a very prominent post in Congress.

Gov. Anderson reported a telephone conversation with Sen. Roman Hruska late Tuesday re-affirmed the senator's and USDA's opinion that farmers cannot put soil bank crops into silage nor use such crops for fodder. This would amount to these crops being harvested, the governor said, and would violate the soil bank principle.

Nebraska counties which have asked for aid but on which no report as yet has been received are Burt, Custer, Kearney, Pawnee, Phelps, Thayer, Valley, Washington, and Webster. Valley made its request Tuesday.

Lancaster County had requested the aid on five major points—rainfall lack, 60 per cent or normal; alfalfa, 50 per cent or normal; corn, 50 per cent or normal; pas-

McKeon Weeps As He Relives Death Trek

EMOTION CHOKES WITNESS

At Court-Martial

By ARTHUR EVERETT
PARRIS ISLAND, S. C. (AP) — Staff Sgt. Matthew C. McKeon relived from the witness stand today the April 8 death march which cost the lives of six of his recruits. The memory left him weeping, atremble, unable for a time to go on.

"Oh, my God, what have I done?" was how McKeon said he reacted at the first stunning knowledge that the six recruits had drowned as he led a night march into Ribbon Creek.

He said he took Platoon 71 into the marshy creek because "nothing else had seemed to work."

"I thought it would teach them when I told them — or anybody told them — to do something, they'd do it," said the 31-year-old defendant in the most sensational court-martial in Marine Corps history.

McKeon said that as a drill instructor at this 5,000-acre training base, nobody every had instructed him on whether or not night marches into water were prohibited.

Tells of Leading Men

He said he led his Marine recruit platoon himself because "I didn't want anything to happen to them — I always believe never to ask troops to do anything I wouldn't do."

He testified he was never above his chest in the creek waters before the tragedy. But he swore a group of Platoon 71 recruits, the drowning victims among them, wandered some 30 feet out of the line of march toward the center of the stream.

McKeon used a pointer to trace the death march on an eight-foot-square replica of the Ribbon Creek terrain. He was telling how he tried to save a young Negro recruit as the boy floundered wordlessly to his death in deep water.

"This kid let go and that's the last I seen him," McKeon blurted. Then emotion choked off his voice. Tears fogged his vision. He did not sob. But his body shook violently with tension. He could obviously not go on — by so much as a single word, a single gesture. It took a court recess to restore him.

Slapped His Daughter
Earlier, McKeon choked up momentarily as he assured his court-martial he has slapped his 5-year-old daughter harder than he ever slapped any member of recruit Platoon 71.

McKeon called the death march similar to one he underwent as a fledgling Marine "on several occasions."

In discussing the breaches of discipline of Platoon 71, defense Attorney Emile Zola Berman asked McKeon at one point: "Fundamentally, they were not bad boys, were they?"

Without pause, McKeon leveled a gaze over the crowded courtroom and said in soft tones that encompassed both the living and the dead:

"They were good lads."

McKeon is accused of manslaughter, oppression of recruits and drinking on duty in connection with the death march. He can be dishonorably discharged and imprisoned if convicted.

Turned Down

NEW YORK — Television actor Dave Garroway and his fiancée, pretty brunette Pamela Wild tried to get a marriage license but were turned down—temporarily.

The pair did not bring blood test certificates with them, apparently unaware that they were required before a license could be issued.

End Of A Gruelling Day

at Parris Island, S. C., for which he is charged with the deaths of six Marine recruits that were drowned when he led a platoon of 74 men into marshes and waters of Ribbon Creek last April 8. (AP Wirephoto.)

Clearings For '56 Up Over $14 Million

A gain of $14,302,027.25 was shown in Lincoln clearing for the first seven months of 1956 compared with the same period last year, Lincoln Clearing House officials reported Tuesday.

The totals for the period from Jan. 1 to July 31:

1956	$293,968,921.88
1955	$279,666,894.63

Clearings during July, 1956 aggregated $43,181,250.37, an increase of $2,959,249.09 over the corresponding month last year.

The June, 1956 clearings totaled $42,115,768.35.

Soil Bank Grazing OK'd In Lancaster

ture, 25 per cent of normal, and livestock, 25 per cent already sold.

Still Hope For Others

Robert Webb, administrative officer of the State Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation (ASC) office, a federal agency, said Tuesday there still is hope for the counties that requested aid within the past few days.

A delegation of Cass County farmers called on the governor Tuesday to point out that in counties where federal corn crop insurance is in effect—Cass being one of them—farmers had received notices only Monday that they could be released from premium payments on corn acres placed in the soil bank.

This was too late for soil bank agreement signing.

The governor received two telegrams from Knox County, noting that a meeting of 289 farmers and representatives of the Knox County Farm Bureau, Feeders Assn., and county supervisors, asked for drought aid and the right to place in silage crops from soil bank land.

Ask Longer Time

The telegrams also asked for an extension of the grazing period past Aug. 31 and extension by 10 days of the signing up date.

In asking for drought classification, the county asked that farmers be allowed to purchase grain at $1 under the market price, that the government pay one-half the cost of transporting forage crops, and emergency loans by the Farm Home Administration for operating expenses.

Such requests would have to be heard by the State Director of Agriculture with any action based on inspection by the USDA.

Waverly Native, Mrs. Derieg Dies

Funeral services for Mrs. Lurena Bainbridge Derieg, a native of Waverly, will be 10 a.m. Thursday at Carnegie, Okla. Burial will be at Carnegie.

Mrs. Derieg died at Linwood, N. Y.

She was the widow of William A. Derieg.

Surviving are daughters, Mary Muffshafen of Linwood, Rena Fallon of Carnegie, and Nell Ziska of Austinburg, O.; sons, Mike and George, both of Lincoln, William P. of Kalamazoo, Mich., and Anthony of Carnegie; a sister, Mrs. Rhodie Olley of Waverly, and 23 grandchildren.

Aluminum Workers On Strike

NEW YORK (Wednesday) — A strike against the nation's two leading aluminum companies by the United Steelworkers went into effect early today, while a second union held up similar action at least temporarily.

The strike officially began at midnight in the midst of contract negotiations between two unions and the Aluminum Co. of America (Alcoa) and the Reynolds Metals Co.

First plants to be affected were four of the Alcoa firm.

To Spread

A union spokesman said the walkout would spread automatically across the nation unless agreement were reached in the early morning hours here.

The two unions are the United Steelworkers and the Aluminum Workers International Union.

Reynolds and Alcoa are negotiating here with the USW.

Alcoa is negotiating in Pittsburgh with the AWIU and Reynolds with the AWIU in Richmond, Va.

Three Kearney Escapees Caught By Omaha Police

OMAHA — Omaha police Tuesday captured three runaway youths who fled from the Boys Industrial School at Kearney Monday night and arrived in Omaha in a stolen car.

Detective Capt. Ted Pike identified the three as Francis Walker, Harry Eugene Ryan and Paul Edward Smith, all 19.

He said Ryan and Smith were taken together but Walker attempted to run from the arresting officers, Jerry Manousek and Tom Curran, and suffered a bruised knee. The officers caught him, and had his knee treated. He has been returned to Central Police Station.

Capt. Pike said Ryan and Smith are Omahans, but he did not have a home address from Walker. Kearney sources said he also is an Omahan.

The car was recovered. Kearney police said it was owned by William Kuebler, Kearney farmer.

Supt. Nolan Ellandson said the boys broke a steel dormitory window to escape.

Funeral Services For A. J. Silenieks To Be Saturday

Funeral services for Aleksanders Janis Silenieks, 69, of 4140 A, who died Monday, will be 3 p.m. Saturday at Grace Lutheran Church.

The Rev. Herbert Jeser will officiate. Burial will be in Wyuka.

Born in Latvia, he had lived in Lincoln six and a half years. He was a retired civil engineer.

He was president of the Latvian Evangelical Lutheran Church, and was associated with Grace Lutheran Church.

Surviving are sons, Juris and Janis of Lincoln, and Imants of Latvia; sister, Emma Kuze of Manchester, Conn., and a brother, Karlis of Latvia.

STASSEN RENEWS WARNING

Foresees Possible Defeat For Ike If Nixon Renominated

WASHINGTON — Harold E. Stassen, seeking to bolster his anti-Nixon campaign Tuesday raised the specter of possible defeat for President Eisenhower if Vice President Richard M. Nixon is renominated.

Stassen told an overflow audience at a National Press Club luncheon that Nixon's name on the GOP ticket would cost Eisenhower "millions of votes" in an election that will be no "cinch."

No Flat Predictions
While he didn't openly predict Eisenhower would lose with Nixon as his running mate, Stassen told his hearers they would have to evaluate his one-man campaign to dump Nixon in terms of his own belief that no election is ever settled until all the votes are counted.

Stassen is trying to get Gov. Christian Herter of Massachusetts nominated for vice president in place of Nixon.

Even before Stassen spoke, Republican National Chairman Leonard W. Hall issued a statement saying that he, like Stassen, favors an "open" party convention. He said he hoped Stassen "or any delegate in his behalf will come before the convention to place any name in nomination for the vice presidency."

Former Lincolnite, Rev. Hartwig Dies

Lincoln Star Special

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn.—Funeral services for the Rev. George H. Hartwig, 77, of 3314 Emerson Ave. South, will be held 2 p.m. Friday at Lake of the Isles Lutheran Church in Minneapolis.

The Rev. Hartwig died here Tuesday.

Born in New York state, he had taught at Dana College, Blair, Neb., from 1933 to 1940, and was a professor of English at Mid-Rev. Mr. Hartwig land College, Fremont, Neb., from 1940 until his retirement in 1949.

At Midland he was instrumental in establishing a library of Biblical literature.

He had lived in Lincoln from 1949 until two years ago, when he moved to Minneapolis.

Prior to teaching in Nebraska colleges, he had held pastorates at Potter and Hornell, N.Y., and Bridgewater, Nova Scotia, and had taught at St. Olaf College, Northfield, Minn., and Wittenberg College, Springfield, O.

Memorials are suggested to the Library of Biblical Literatures at Midland College.

Surviving are his wife, Delborg Margaret; daughters, Mrs. Stanley Matzke Jr., and Katherine; son, Robert, all of Minneapolis, and two brothers, Albert of New York, N.Y., and Wilmer of Rochester, N.Y.

5-Year-Old Girl Collides With Car; Injured Slightly

Five-year-old Mary Allsman of 302 So. 19th suffered lacerations on her face and left arm in a car-pedestrian accident on 19th between L and M Tuesday night.

She was taken to Lincoln General Hospital where she was treated and later released.

Police said the small girl was walking east on 19th when she collided with a northbound car on 19th driven by Leon Lauver, 24, of 712 So. 11th.

Mrs. Clara Brandt Retires As NWU Health Director

Mrs. Clara R. Brandt, long-time Nebraska Wesleyan physical education staff member, has retired. The announcement of her retirement was made by Chancellor A. Leland Forrester.

Mrs. Brandt had served on the Wesleyan staff since 1916 when she joined the Training School faculty. In 1921 she was named director of physical education for physical education at a National Press Club luncheon that Nixon's name on the GOP ticket would cost Eisenhower "millions of votes" in an election that will be no "cinch."

A native of Clinton, Ill., and a graduate of Wood River High School, Mrs. Brandt held A. B. and M. A. degrees in physical education and education from the University of Nebraska.

Dr. Forrest said Miss Ellen Brown of Lincoln who served as school nurse last year will now assume the dual role of school nurse and director of health as a replacement for Mrs. Brandt.

City Building Figures Down From 1955

July construction costs in Lincoln hit $1,456,871 but still put the city even farther behind building activity during the record high year of 1955.

July's figure brings the total costs for 1956 to date to $8,735,254, well behind the $13,840,835 total piled up at the same time last year. In July, 1955, costs hit $2,192,928.

A substantial drop is being experienced this year in new home activity. For 1956 to date, permits have been issued for 563 dwellings with a total estimated cost of $4,903,783.

At the same time last year, the home permit figure stood at 1,233 with costs of $9,018,787.

During the past month, 79 new residential permits were issued as compared with 190 for the same month in 1955.

Major permits issued during July include the $500,000 women's dormitory by Union College at 3800 So. 48th, a $50,000 office at 947 N. by the Norris Power District and a $30,000 clinic at 810 No. 48th by Dr. Robert E. Lookabaugh.

July Rainfall For City Up From 1955

July is the second month this year that Lincoln's rainfall has exceeded the normal amount. As of midnight Tuesday, the Weather Bureau has recorded 4.35 inches of rainfall compared with the normal July average of 3.10.

January was the only other month thus far this year when precipitation was above average. That month Lincoln received one inch compared with the normal .82 of an inch.

Lincoln has recorded a total of 14.17 inches for the first seven months compared with 15.84 for the same period in 1955.

The figures, by month:

	Normal	1956
Jan.	.82	1.00
Feb.	.96	.38
March	1.47	.25
April	2.29	1.65
May	3.10	2.61

MEXICO CITY — The National University said bones of a dinosaur almost 100 feet long have been found near Cofradia, a village in the west coast state of Sinaloa.

One Escapes Nursing Home Blaze; 12 Persons Killed

PUXICO, Mo. — A rapidly spreading fire that apparently caught everyone asleep converted a nursing home into a blazing furnace and killed 12 persons. Only one occupant escaped.

"The whole interior was on fire and flames seemed to be shooting clear to the third floor when I got there," said Jack Hardy, a carpenter and among the first at the scene.

"The fire spread like paper and the building was a mass of flames before we could summon the fire department."

Authorities expressed belief the fire might have started when a smoldering cigarette fell onto a sofa on the first floor of the old three-story frame building, once a residence.

Dr. Vernon H. Skillings, an osteopath and chief of the Puxico volunteer fire department, said the home was inspected by state officials as recently as two months ago. It was licensed and approved by the State Board of Health.

Mrs. Charity Frederick, 77, a mental patient from nearby Poplar Bluff, was the only survivor. She was dragged to safety by two men who climbed to the front porch roof and smashed a window of her second floor room in the only portion of the building not in flames.

Part of the second floor collapsed just as Mrs. Frederick was snatched to safety by Hardy and Gary Dublin, 19, an auto mechanic.

Council Concerned On Cost Of New Muny Court Quarters

By BILL DOBLER
Star Staff Writer

City Council members expressed concern over the cost of providing additional Municipal Court space and new quarters for the City-County Health Department as the 1956-57 court budget was reviewed.

The court budget as proposed by Municipal Judge John Jacobson would go from $42,799 for the year ending Aug. 31 to $57,986 for the coming year.

The budget includes additional salaries for a new judge and a higher scale for the present judge but does not cover the cost of providing quarters for the second judge.

With budget request well over $200,000 higher than the current year's appropriation without the court and Health Department remodeling, the Council is searching for a way out of the space requirements.

Among the court possibilities are the use of basement space in the Municipal Building or the inauguration of evening court sessions. Plans considered to solve both the court and health problems include the transfer of one or the other to quarters in the old Bryant School building at 19th and Q.

Another alternative would be construction of an addition to the Municipal Building.

Also reviewed by the Council was the building and sidewalk inspection department budget recommendation of $29,427 for the 1956-57 fiscal year. The current year's appropriation was $24,120.

Appeal Plea Of Pen Lifer To Be Heard

A 60-year-old Penitentiary inmate convicted of killing his wife in 1942 will appear before the September hearings of the Board of Pardons and Paroles.

The inmate is Herbert Mann. He was sentenced to life on a second degree murder charge, to which he pleaded guilty, on Nov. 13, 1942. He admitted he shot his wife with a revolver after she refused to return to live with him after the couple was divorced.

Mann shot himself twice after killing his wife. He later recovered fully in Scottsbluff where the shootings occurred.

A WW I veteran, Mann had two children by his wife, Verda.

District Judge C. G. Perry, where Mann was tried and found guilty, recommended to the Pardon Board he never be pardoned or paroled.

Mann is one of five Penitentiary cases listed for hearing Sept. 12. Reformatory cases, a total of nine, will be heard by the Board the following day. No cases are scheduled for hearing during August.

Other cases set for hearing:

Penitentiary
Roger Lobdell, 44, Lincoln: sentenced for conspiracy to break and enter and possession of burglary tools from Red Willow County; 2 years and 5 years, concurrent; 1954.

Donald Nab 24, Scottsbluff: forgery; Scotts Bluff County; 1 year; sentenced in 1952, discharged in 1954, now seeks full pardon.

Reformatory
Francis M. Duncan, 43, Norfolk: no fund check, Douglas, 1-3 years; 1955.

Darwin Connor, 24, Burwell: insufficient fund checks, Hall; 1-3 years; 1955.

Edw. E. McHenry, 18, Salt Lake City, Utah: burglary, Keith; 2 years; 1955.

Donald Vrbic, 27, West Point: forgery and violation of bench parole, Lancaster; 1-3 years; 1955.

Willie J. Fisher, 23, Cleveland, Ohio: assault to do great bodily injury; Lancaster; 1-3 years; 1955.

Clifton Wilborn, 27, Lincoln: no fund check, Richardson; 1-3 years; 1955.

Walter F. Page, 19, Meredith, N. M.: burglary; Sarpy; 1-2 years; 1955.

Nebbie S. Rodriguez, 23 Scottsbluff: forgery, Scotts Bluff; 2-3 years; 1955.

Huor Hernandez, 27, Lincoln: forgery; Scotts Bluff; 2-3 years; 1955.

Milk Goes Up Another Penny

The price increase on retail milk in Lincoln, up one cent Wednesday, is a result of Nebraska's drought and the resulting feed shortage. Both dairies and consumers start paying the increase.

This brings retail milk in Lincoln to a postwar high of 24 cents, and farmers producing Grade A milk in this area will now receive $5.20 a hundred weight.

Mayor Announces 14-Member Charter Revision Committee

Mayor Bennett Martin has announced the names of 14 persons who have agreed to serve as members on the city's charter revision committee.

One other member will be appointed later to make the total membership 15. The group will study the present city charter and recommend to the City Council revisions to be submitted to a vote of the people in the 1957 city election.

Those who have agreed to serve: Frank D. Williams, attorney, of Calvert Place.

Robert Van Peit, attorney of 2323 Woodcrest.

Edward F. Carter Jr., attorney, of 4010 Calvert.

Mrs. Elizabeth Senning of 2730 Manse, member of the League of Women Voters and widow of Dr. John P. Senning, who was professor emeritus of the University of Nebraska political science department and one of the principal founders of the state's Unicameral.

Board Kills Kuhnner Motion Seeking Jail Cost Estimates

By VIRGIL FALLOON
Star Staff Writer

Cost estimates for a new Lancaster County jail building were sought Tuesday by Commissioner Chris Kuhnner, but the County Board killed the move by a 2-to-1 vote.

Kuhnner introduced a resolution calling for the county engineer to estimate the construction costs of a two-story, 60-by-65 foot building to house 73 prisoners.

But Commissioners Russell Brehm and Del Lienemann voted down the motion, claiming it was out of line as long as the City-County Building Authority is in operation.

Use Inheritance Taxes

Kuhnner has suggested the new jail could be built with inheritance tax funds which total nearly $200,000.

"I don't know anything that's more important than a new jail," Kuhnner told his colleagues, "considering the statements made about the jail building during the recent bond issue."

Brehm agreed a new jail building is needed, but questioned the timing of Kuhnner's proposal.

In a few weeks joint city-county committee discussion should disclose whether merger of the county jail with the city jail is possible.

The committee has scheduled its first meeting for Wednesday. Sheriff Merle Karnopp and Police Chief Joe Carroll will be asked to meet with the committee "to discuss the merger problems."

Both Brehm and Lienemann pointed out the city and county have a contract for the existence of the City-County Building Authority until next June 1.

Lienemann felt the county is "obligated until then" to work with the city toward a consolidated building.

"Joint Building Still Possible"

"The city-county building is still a possibility if the bond issue is put on the ballot by itself," Lienemann said in referring to comments that have reached him.

The jail is not an emergency that can't wait another year, he said. "We don't want to build a jail here and have the city-county building built blocks away in two or three years."

Kuhnner expressed doubt that voter sentiment on the city-county building issue would change between now and next June.

"The building authority, as far as I'm concerned, is a dead duck," Kuhnner added.

The present county jail is a two-story building, 60 by 40 feet, with a 43-prisoner capacity.

Kuhnner, following tours of the city jail, has expressed doubt that the city jail has room for county prisoners. The city capacity reportedly is 83 prisoners.

Council Concerned On Cost Of New Muny Court Quarters

By BILL DOBLER
Star Staff Writer

City Council members expressed concern over the cost of providing additional Municipal Court space and new quarters for the City-County Health Department as the 1956-57 court budget was reviewed.

The court budget as proposed by Municipal Judge John Jacobson would go from $42,799 for the year ending Aug. 31 to $57,986 for the coming year.

The budget includes additional salaries for a new judge and a higher scale for the present judge but does not cover the cost of providing quarters for the second judge.

With budget request well over $200,000 higher than the current year's appropriation without the court and Health Department remodeling, the Council is searching for a way out of the space requirements.

Among the court possibilities are the use of basement space in the Municipal Building or the inaugu-ation of evening court sessions. Plans considered to solve both the court and health problems include the transfer of one or the other to quarters in the old Bryant School building at 19th and Q.

Another alternative would be construction of an addition to the Municipal Building.

Also reviewed by the Council was the building and sidewalk inspection department budget recommendation of $29,427 for the 1956-57 fiscal year. The current year's appropriation was $24,120.

Appeal Plea Of Pen Lifer To Be Heard

A 60-year-old Penitentiary inmate convicted of killing his wife in 1942 will appear before the September hearings of the Board of Pardons and Paroles.

The inmate is Herbert Mann. He was sentenced to life on a second degree murder charge, to which he pleaded guilty, on Nov. 13, 1942. He admitted he shot his wife with a revolver after she refused to return to live with him after the couple was divorced.

Mann shot himself twice after killing his wife. He later recovered fully in Scottsbluff where the shootings occurred.

A WW I veteran, Mann had two children by his wife, Verda.

District Judge C. G. Perry, where Mann was tried and found guilty, recommended to the Pardon Board he never be pardoned or paroled.

Mann is one of five Penitentiary cases listed for hearing Sept. 12. Reformatory cases, a total of nine, will be heard by the Board the following day. No cases are scheduled for hearing during August.

Other cases set for hearing:

Penitentiary
Roger Lobdell, 44, Lincoln: sentenced for conspiracy to break and enter and possession of burglary tools from Red Willow County; 2 years and 5 years, concurrent; 1954.
Donald Nab, 24, Scottsbluff: forgery; Scotts Bluff County; 3 years; 1955.
Ray Stinnett, 32, Texas: removing mortgaged property; Scotts Bluff; 2 years; 1955.
Dave Heintz, 45, Lincoln: no account check; Scotts Bluff County; 1 year; sentenced in 1953, discharged in 1954, now seeks full pardon.

Reformatory
Francis M. Duncan, 43, Norfolk: no fund check; Douglas; 1-3 years; 1955.
Darwin Connor, 24, Burwell: insufficient fund checks; Hall; 1-3 years; 1955.
Edna E. McHenry, 18, Salt Lake City, Utah: burglary; Keith; 2 years; 1955.
Donald Vrbta, 27, West Point: forgery and violation of bench parole; Lancaster; 1-3 years; 1955.
Willie J. Fisher, 23, Cleveland, Ohio: assault to do great bodily injury; Lancaster; 1-3 years; 1955.
Clifton Wilburn, 27, Lincoln: no fund check; Richardson; 1-2 years; 1955.
Walter F. Paze, 19, Meredith, N. M.: burglary; Sappy; 1-2 years; 1955.
Nebbie S. Rodriguez, 23 Scottsbluff: forgery; Scotts Bluff; 2-3 years; 1955.
Henry Hernandez, 27, Lincoln: forgery; Scotts Bluff; 2-3 years; 1955.

Milk Goes Up Another Penny

The price increase on retail milk in Lincoln, up one cent Wednesday, is a result of Nebraska's drought and the resulting feed shortage. Both dairies and consumers start paying the increase.

This brings retail milk in Lincoln to a postwar high of 24 cents, and farmers producing Grade A milk in this area will now receive $5.20 a hundred weight.

Board Kills Kuhner Motion Seeking Jail Cost Estimates

By VIRGIL FALLOON
Star Staff Writer

Cost estimates for a new Lancaster County jail building were sought Tuesday by Commissioner Chris Kuhner, but the County Board killed the move by a 2-to-1 vote.

Kuhner introduced a resolution calling for the county engineer to estimate the construction costs of a two-story, 60-by-65 foot building to house 73 prisoners.

But Commissioners Russell Brehm and Del Lienemann voted down the motion, claiming it was out of line as long as the City-County Building Authority is in operation.

Kuhner has suggested the new jail could be built with inheritance tax funds which total nearly $200,000.

"I don't know anything that's more important than a new jail," Kuhner told his colleagues, "considering the statements made about the jail building during the recent bond issue."

Brehm agreed a new jail building is needed, but questioned the timing of Kuhner's proposal.

In a few weeks joint city-county committee discussion should disclose whether merger of the county jail with the city jail is possible.

The committee has scheduled its first meeting for Wednesday. Sheriff Merle Karnopp and Police Chief Joe Carroll will be asked to meet with the committee "to discuss the merger problems."

Both Brehm and Lienemann pointed out the city and county have a contract for the existence of the City-County Building Authority until next June 1.

Lienemann felt the county is "obligated until then" to work with the city toward a consolidated building.

"Joint Building Still Possible"

"The city-county building is still a possibility if the bond issue is put on the ballot by itself," Lienemann said in referring to comments that have reached him.

The jail is not an emergency that can't wait another year, he said. "We don't want to build a jail here and have the city-county building built blocks away in two or three years."

Kuhner expressed doubt that voter sentiment on the city-county building issue would change between now and next June.

"The building authority, as far as I'm concerned, is a dead duck," Kuhner added.

The present county jail is a two-story building, 60 by 40 feet, with a 43-prisoner capacity.

Kuhner, following tours of the city jail, has expressed doubt that the city jail has room for county prisoners. The city capacity reportedly is 83 prisoners.

AEC Predicts Harnessing Of H-Bomb For Peaceful Purposes

Safe Power Plants Seen

By ELTON C. FAY
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Atomic Energy Commission Tuesday predicted eventual success in harnessing the hydrogen bomb reaction for peaceful purposes. And it said such nuclear power plants promise to be "extremely safe."

In its semiannual report, the AEC spoke of research looking to a method of controlled thermonuclear energy—taming the furious force now used in the world's mightiest weapons. It said this research, now being conducted at five laboratories, "certainly is on a very long-term basis, but it is probable that success will be achieved eventually."

The thermonuclear process involves fusion of atomic materials. Present-day atomic power plants are based on fission, or splitting, of atoms.

'Increasing'
The report, covering the first half of this year, also said that 1. The United States "family of weapons in various stages of research, development, and production engineering, is increasing rapidly."

2. In the 1956 series of full-scale tests of fusion and fusion weapons at the Eniwetok proving grounds in the central Pacific there was "testing of devices leading toward development of defensive weapons, as well as testing of thermonuclear devices to verify the state of understanding of these weapons." The reference, otherwise unexplained, seemed to mean that the AEC had tried out, among other things, an atomic anti-aircraft missile.

3. The United States is now "the free world's leading producer" of uranium ore and concentrates. Ore production in this country has reached nearly three million tons a year and is expected to mount to five or six million a year. This compares with the annual production in 1948 of only about 70,000 tons.

Problems
In its discussion of the hydrogen power program, the AEC emphasized the enormous problems confronting the scientists. These include the fact that temperatures of several hundred million degrees centigrade is required to induce fusion of atoms. Such temperatures would "vaporize instantly" the metals used in a reactor, the commission noted. It suggested, "The only thing which conceivably is capable of containing this type of reaction is an electric or magnetic field, which might be used to insulate the walls of a reaction chamber from extremely high temperatures at the center of the container."

34,000 Births In Nebraska Tops Previous State Records

Nebraska fostered a bumper baby crop during 1955 that topped all previous records in the state. This fact is revealed in the annual report of the Bureau of Vital Statistics, headed by Clair L. Chism, director.

Births during the year totaled 34,087. This was 278 more than the previous high, recorded in 1952 of 33,817. Of the total of live births, 736 were listed as illegitimate.

17 Outside Hospital
Only 17 of the 1955 list were reported born outside a hospital or without the aid of a physician. Osteopaths were in attendance at 165 of the births.

The number of deaths during the year was 13,001. Marriages numbered 11,892 and divorces totaled 2,350.

Marriages were up about 500 from 1954, and divorces were five below the previous year.

Heart Disease Tops
The principal cause of death during the year was heart disease, which was responsible for 37.4 per cent of the deaths.

Other causes of death, in order of occurrence, were: cancer, 16.3 per cent; cerebral hemorrhage, 8.3; accidental, 6.8; cerebral embolism and thrombosis, 3.2; pneumonia, 2.4; arteriosclerosis, 2.2; diabetes mellitus, 2.1; premature births, 1.6; congenital malformations, 1.5, and all other causes, 18.2.

The total number of accidental deaths listed was 881, with motor vehicle accidents accounting for 275. Excessive heat accounted for 43 and cold weather resulted in two deaths.

Of the total number of deaths, 7,325 were men and 5,476 were women. 470 deaths were listed as stillbirths.

The male-female birth ratio was about even with 17,440 male births and 16,647 female.

Omaha was high in the number of babies born, with 7,527 of the total. Lincoln was second high with 3,114.

Only two sets of triplets were listed as being born in the state during the year. Hamilton and Sheridan Counties both listed one set. The births included 366 sets of twins.

'Unexpected' School Funds Said Needed

Lincoln's School Board received $539,305 more than it had anticipated from tax funds during 1955-56, according to school officials.

But Steven Watkins, superintendent of schools, and David Sell, assistant superintendent in charge of business affairs, say this amount was taken into consideration when preparing the 1956-57 school board budget request.

Lancaster County Commissioner Del Lienemann said earlier this week his figures showed the school board received about $530,027 more than it expected from tax funds during 1955-56. He said he didn't know what effect this would have on the board's 1956-57 budget request.

$747,211 On Hand

Sell said about $747,211 was on hand July 1, at the start of the fiscal year. He said it is necessary to have large amounts on hand at the end of the fiscal year to pay bond and interest payments which fall due on the first day of the new fiscal year.

Sell said about $418,000 in bond and interest payments were due this July 1.

The school board requested a 1956-57 school levy that would raise $6,151,839.91. The board requested $4,984,473.62 from the Lancaster County Board in 1955-56. The 1956-57 increase amounts to $1,167,366.29, or about 23 per cent. These figures do not include tax revenue to come from outside the county. During 1955-56 this revenue amounted to $324,878.33.

Blistering Heat Severely Damages Nebraska's Dryland Corn

Crop Holding In Few Counties

Government crop observers Tuesday confirmed what Nebraska's corn farmers already knew—that blistering weather last week dealt a severe blow to dryland corn. The crop was "damaged badly" by lack of subsoil moisture, lack of rain and two days of hot winds with low humidity, the weekly crop report of the State-Federal Division of Agricultural Statistics noted.

The condition still is spotted but much of the corn is fired, some beyond recovery.

Damage became progressively worse throughout the month of July, the report indicated.

'Heavy Damage' Last Week
There was "some damage" the second week, "considerable damage" the third week and "heavy damage" the last week in July, the report said.

Greatest damage occurred in the eastern two-thirds of the state where the bulk of the corn is grown.

There are a few counties in east central and northeastern Nebraska, mostly those bordering the Missouri River from Dixon to Washington Counties, where more rain has fallen and the corn is still holding. These are counties which received fairly good rains the first three weeks of July.

But there was virtually no rain during the last 10 days of July and corn just couldn't withstand the high temperatures, low humidity and dry soil, the report said.

Only 15% irrigated
About 95.5 per cent of this year's corn crop was planted to hybrid varieties. More than 15 per cent of the planted acreage is irrigated. Other crop report observations: Sorghum went the way of corn last week with a marked drop in condition. Most alfalfa, pastures and wild hay showed a further crop likewise.

The pasture and feed situation is "rather serious" in the light of the high level of cattle numbers. Liquidation of cattle has started.

Wheat Average Unchanged
Final reports on wheat show a little higher yield in western Nebraska but low yields in eastern Nebraska, leaving the average unchanged.

Off-The-Farm Work Sought In Dry Areas

Farmers in some of Nebraska's drought stricken areas are beginning to look for off-the-farm work to fatten up their incomes, the Nebraska Division of Employment Security reported.

Very little hiring for farm work is expected to take place between now and fall except for some labor work by the day, for temporary periods, the agency said.

The wheat harvest is completed, corn detasseling will be finished this week, and the wild hay harvest is progressing satisfactorily with no shortage of labor, the division noted in its weekly farm labor bulletin.

Reported farm job placements last week totaled 5,818. Of these, 2,590 were harvest hands and combine operators, 2,032 were corn detasslers, 293 were persons placed on hay ranches, 318 were beet workers, 15 potato workers, 75 general farm and ranch hands, and 495 were irrigators, tractor operators and miscellaneous seasonal workers.

August Will Start With Rain Some Areas

Rain is due over the northeast, the lower Lakes and the Ohio and Tennessee valleys Wednesday. Scattered showers and thunderstorms are expected throughout the Rockies. It will be fair over the Pacific states. Warmer weather is expected for all of the eastern seaboard. (AP Wirephoto Map.)

Protest Petitions For Dr. Craig Circulated In Five Communities

From Press Dispatches
WINSIDE, Neb. — Petitions are being circulated in five northeast communities asking that a four-month prison sentence imposed on Dr. Donald Craig of Winside for income tax evasion be suspended "in the interest of community health and physical well being."

Dr. Craig was given the prison sentence and fined $2,000 in Omaha Federal Court after pleading no contest to two counts of income tax evasion. A third count, to which he pleaded innocent, was dismissed.

The physician has served the Winside community and surrounding territory for 20 years. About 49, he has three daughters and two sons.

Federal Judge John Delehant, in passing sentence, suspended execution of it for a period of up to 60 days to allow Dr. Craig to arrange for maintenance of his practice and be home when a 17-year-old son enters military service.

The Associated Press said an estimated "2,000 to 3,000" persons have signed the petitions which call attention to the fact Dr. Craig is the only physician serving more than 3,500 persons.

The petition campaign was decided upon at mass meetings in Winside Saturday night and Monday night, both attended by several hundred persons. The petitions are being circulated in Winside, Hoskins, Carroll, Wayne and Norfolk.

A motion was passed during the meeting in which the town of Winside "appealed for sympathy" in the case of Dr. Craig. A letter also was prepared and sent to state American Legion Adjutant R. C. Patterson in Lincoln.

Among persons speaking at the meeting were some of Dr. Craig's patients.

The group agreed to ask the help of Rep. Robert Harrison of Norfolk and Sen. Carl Curtis of Minden. The petitions will be turned over to the Congressmen and their aid will be asked in carrying the case to "the proper officials," a spokesman said.

The petitions read:
"To whom it may concern: Whereas Dr. Donald Craig is the only practicing physician within a radius of about 20 miles and serving more than 3,500 people, and whereas it would be impossible to replace Dr. Donald Craig in the immediate future, and where Dr. Donald Craig's services are urgently needed at the present time, we the undersigned urgently plead in the interest of community health and physical well being that the four month prison sen-

OMAHA — Three thousand persons from five states are expected Thursday for the opening of the Assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses. The meeting continues through Aug. 5.

Nebraska's other senator, Re-

Curtis May Gain Membership To Senate Finance Committee

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Curtis (R-Neb.) may gain membership on the Senate Finance Committee next January.

There will be at least one vacancy on this committee as Sen. Millikin (R-Colo.) is not seeking re-election.

This is regarded as one of the more important Senate committees and a number of senators have expressed interest in being named to the committee. Committee membership is determined by seniority when there are several senators seeking an open spot.

While Curtis has only two years of seniority in the Senate, some Senate sources feel that when the new Senate committees are named next January considerable weight will be given to the fact that Curtis served for 10 years in the House on the Ways and Means Committee, the tax writing committee of the House.

Nebraska's other senator, Re-

Curtis has been a member of the Post Office and Civil Service, and the Rules Committee while Hruska has been on the Public Works Committee for the past two years.

One Polio Case

A polio case in Red Willow County was added last week to Nebraska's 1956 list, the State Health Department reported Tuesday. Because an earlier reported case turned out to have been something other than polio, the year's total to date remained at 20. A year ago at this time 79 cases had been reported.

Sachs Estate Tax

The estate of Dr. Adolph Sachs of Omaha, who died May 2, 1955, has paid real estate taxes of $4,084.13, the tax commissioner's office reported Tuesday. The net estate for tax purposes was reported as $323,296.19. The county inheritance tax amounted to $2,181.35.

POSTCARD

Anybody in south Texas can tell you that Jim Bowie was one of the richest men in the world when he died at the Alamo. He had enough silver stacked in the hills to buy all of Texas. N a t u r a l l y this was a lost S p a n i s h mine. And naturally when t h e Colonel cashed in, it got lost again. So the other day I drove off the highway north of San Antonio to see what could be seen.

Nowadays, Jim Bowie is on TV serials. But around 1830 he was a real live man around San Antonio. The Colonel was no fool. When he noticed a bunch of Lipan Indians coming in to trade with pure silver, he asked them where they got it.

The Indians said they couldn't tell him that. Having made some kind of a trust fund out of it. "The silver deal is a big secret," said the Indians, "we couldn't even sell you the location. How about a nice Indian blanket? Reservation prices."

"None of your lip, Lipan," said Jim. "If you can't lick 'em, join 'em, is what I always say. How about me joining up with your tribe."

The Lipans said OK. Jim packed a big bowie knife. He was a handy man around the tepee in case of trouble which was frequent in those times.

Jim hung around being an Indian. Finally the Lipans said all right, Jim. Now we'll show you the mine.

The location is near the town of Menard. There was a Spanish mission and a presidio there about 1750. The mission was to handle the Indians on spiritual advice and the presidio was to handle them on financial matters. Namely on digging silver.

This had been abandoned and the Spaniards run out by the time Bowie got there. But apparently there was plenty left. For Jim powdered out on the tribe and went to San Antonio. He got his brother Rezin and some others and came back to get the plunder.

When they got back, they got into quite a ruckus with the Indians. The Indians said that was a fine way to act, coming around to snatch the family silver.

Anyway before they could really get in and work the territory, along came the Texas war of independence. Bowie was killed at the Alamo and, as they say, you can't take it with you. So the silver is still there.

I wish I had more time, I would pick up a truckload and keep it around the house for a rainy day. As it was, I decided to search for one hour.

Menard is about 100 miles north of San Antonio. It lies on the San Saba river. And it is no wonder the Spanish settled down there after crossing the dry Texas hills in between.

The gas station man directed me to the mission. The mission is long gone. But there is a marker out on the south bank of the river, east of town.

A little more of the presidio is left. Some rock walls and so on. The lost mine is only a mile or so from the presidio they say.

But when I got there, I found that a Methodist summer school had taken over the best camp site. The little Methodist boys were running back and forth to a store and buying cokes like crazy.

And it came to my mind that probably these little camper boys had found Jim Bowie's lost mine and were blowing the money on soft drinks.

If I had had a little more time, I would have joined the Methodists. Like Jim joined the Lipans. And eased the secret out of them. But there is not much you can do in an hour. Otherwise it would be a rich man speaking to you this day. That's how close I came to it.

Suburbia

No one has more fun than we do—especially on those treks we take into Suburbia where, we hope, we have made many new friends—where we always are meeting new and charming people—and where there never is any let-up in activity.

This is Wednesday, of course, the morning of our visit in Country Club Terrace. We found that Country Club Terrace shares a common interest with all of Suburbia—and the city at large, we might say—vacations.

Perhaps one doesn't call a week-end trip a vacation, but it helps. At least Mr. and Mrs. Don Bryant and their son, Billy, feel refreshed after their jaunt to Oakland the past week end. Mr. and Mrs. Bryant and their son were the guests of Mrs. Bryant's father, Frank Peden, and her grandmother, Mrs. Emma Peden.

Also out of town last week end were Mr. and Mrs. Byron Darrington and their son, Mark, who spent the Friday-to-Sunday period with Mrs. Darrington's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Milne, in Omaha.

But not all of our Country Club Terrace news this morning is devoted to vacationers and week-end jaunters—although sometimes an echo of a vacation winds its way into other news—Take Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Vogt and their family, for instance. We could just tell you that the Vogts are home from their vacation—but that wouldn't be the whole story—When Mr. and Mrs. Vogt and their children did return home they almost immediately welcomed house guests—Mrs. Richard Mitchell and her two young daughters, Debbie and Sherry, of Waco, Tex. Capt. and Mrs. Mitchell and their family are former residents of Lincoln, having resided here while Capt. Mitchell was stationed at the Lincoln Air Force Base.

Needless to say when she returned to a wide circle of friends Mrs. Mitchell was honored at numerous informal courtesies during her stay.

Mention of the Vogt family reminds us that one of its members celebrated a birthday recently—The birthday celebrant was Sue Vogt who entertained 14 of her sub-teen friends from Merle Beattie school at a hot-dog feed on Tuesday evening, July 24, at VanDorn Park. Following the picnic supper the group returned to the home of the hostess for an evening of bingo.

Then we learned of another birthday party in the Terrace area—It seems that on Wednesday, July 25, small Peggy Wirth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Wirth, celebrated her third birthday anniversary when she entertained seven of her contemporaries at an afternoon ice-cream-and-cake party at her home.

Right now we want to take time out to say goodbye to Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dryden, Jr., who by this time are on their way to their new home in Omaha where they will reside at 842 No. 77th St.

Marriage Solemnized

At a service solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, June 17, Miss Joan Joyce Broughton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Broughton of Haigler, became the bride of Lester Moulton of Corinth, Vt. The lines of the ceremony were read by the Rev. Albert W. Hill, pastor of the Evangelical United Brethren Church of Champion, in the presence of members of the family and a small group of friends, and Mrs. Arthur Silvester, pianist, played the wedding music. Mrs. Silvester also accompanied Donald Broughton, vocal soloist.

The matron of honor and her sister's only attendant was Mrs. Guffie Groseclose who wore a ballerina-length frock of pink tulle and net fashioned with a brief bolero jacket of the tulle. Her headdress of pink net was trimmed with small pink blossoms, and she carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Serving Mr. Moulton as best man was Elroy Broughton, brother of the bride. The bride's gown of white lace and tulle over tulle was accented by a short-sleeved bolero of tulle. The lace of the strapless bodice extended below the waist into a scalloped peplum flaring widely over the full tulle skirt, and her illusion veil was held by a cap of lace patterned with pearls and sequins. She carried a white Bible marked with a cluster of pink carnations.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, after which the couple left for Corinth, Vt., to reside. A graduate of Union College in Lincoln, the bride has been a member of the public schools faculty at Omaha and at Lansing, Mich.

Murals In The Rough

It was an exciting moment for Mrs. C. J. Mortenson of Ord when Artist Terence Duren (left) showed her the rough sketches of the mural she has commissioned him to do for a new building at Nebraska Wesleyan University.

Mr. Duren, who calls Shelby home and who definitely is gaining fame for his excellent work, was in Lincoln Tuesday, and with Mrs. Mortenson was one of a group of art devotees who planned a luncheon at Hotel Cornhusker.

Mrs. Mortenson is the former Carol White, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. C. C. White who, during their lifetime, were enthusiastic supporters of Nebraska Wesleyan University.

In the picture with Mr. Duren and Mrs. Mortenson is R. B. Johnson, business manager at Nebraska Wesleyan.

NEWS ABOUT TOWN

Candlelight Wedding

MRS. JAMES ALAN CRAMER

The altar of St. Paul's Church, Episcopal at Manhattan, Kan., was lighted by white candles and appointed with spreading arrangements of white daisies and gladioli for the marriage of Miss Diana Fellows, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Hurley Fellows of Manhattan, to Lt. James Alan Cramer, son of Mrs. Mark E. Cramer of Wayne and the late Mr. Cramer, on Saturday, July 28. The ceremony was solemnized by the Rev. James Leach in the presence of 150 guests, and Mrs. Owen Sherman, organist, played the wedding music. Preceding the service, Mrs. Sherman also accompanied Pvt. James Vette, the vocal soloist.

Attending her sister-in-law as matron of honor was Mrs. Hurley F. Fellows of Manhattan, Kan., and the bridesmaids were Miss Carol Frohn, Miss Sharon Greiveldinger and Mrs. Kenneth Long, all of Manhattan. Fashioned identically of French blue crystalettes, the attendants' frocks were designed with snug basques and full skirts sashed with tucked crystalettes. Petals of crystalette sprinkled with pearls formed their caps which were brimmed with cascades of white and pink daisies. Miss Patricia Louise Fellows was her aunt's flower girl, and the ringbearer was Robert C. Mullen, Jr., of Lincoln, nephew of the bridegroom. Serving as best man was Hurley F. Fellows, brother of the bride, and the corps of ushers included Robert C. Mullen, Lincoln, Lt. Carl S. Jaeger, Ft. Carson, Colo., and Lt. Willard B. Esplin, Ft. Riley, Kan.

For her wedding, the bride chose a gown of white lace over silk tulle. Tiny pearls traced the rose motif of the lace to frame the shoulder-wide, V décolletage, and the long, tapered sleeves were snugly buttoned at the wrists. Beneath the elongated bodice, the soft folds of the skirt flared into hemline width, and a Victorian coronet of jeweled lace held to the head her veil of imported illusion. She carried a pinacle arrangement of pink roses and stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

Following the reception, which was held at the Ft. Riley Officers Club, the couple left for a honeymoon trip to Miami Beach, Fla. Mrs. Cramer wore for traveling a sheath frock of brown and white printed cotton with a matching stole and white accessories. Lt. and Mrs. Cramer will reside at Manhattan, Kan., where the bridegroom is stationed with the Army at Ft. Riley. A former student at the University of Nebraska, he is a graduate of the University of Iowa and a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Sigma Delta Chi journalism fraternities. Mrs. Cramer is a senior at Kansas State College, Manhattan, and a member of Alpha Xi Delta sorority.

The Brides' Book Says:

Naming her bridal attendants this morning is Miss Marilyn Preusse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Preusse and a member of Chi Omega at the University of Nebraska, whose marriage to Joseph B. Schieffelin of Denver will be an event of Saturday, Aug. 11.

As her matron of honor, Miss Preusse has chosen Mrs. Wilbur Preusse of Redwood Falls, Minn., and the maid of honor will be Miss Laura Ann Harden of Washington, D. C. Attending her aunt as flower girl will be Miss Barbara Preusse of Redwood Falls, and Scotty Preusse, the bride-elect's nephew, will be ringbearer.

Lighting the candles for the 4:30 o'clock ceremony, which will take place at the First Presbyterian Church, will be Mrs. Paul Thompson.

John Babick of Raton, N. M., will be best man, and seating the guests will be Harold Hunt, Hans Brucker and Dr. Fletcher Pomroy, all of Denver, and Wilbur Preusse of Redwood Falls.

Miss Marjorie Speidel, an August bride-elect whose wedding to Thomas J. Jones of Indianola will take place on Saturday, Aug. 11, was the surprise honoree Monday evening when members of Delta Chapter of Beta Sigma revealing plans for a late summer wedding is Miss Beverly Ann Anthony, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Anthony, who has chosen Wednesday, Aug. 29, as the date for marriage to Roy Gene Dill Jr., of Quine, Ala. The service will be solemnized at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon at the American Lutheran Church,

WE HAVE a variety of dates arranged on our calendar—and most of them involve August news, so the new month comes to us well fortified with activity of one kind and another—Oddly enough, all the little calendar rings have to do with events that are scheduled for later in the month—but the day will come when we can talk about them.

Bernardino on Aug. 17 to attend the wedding.

THIS morning we have news of a young-set house party—The hostess is Miss Jo Brown, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John A. Brown, III, and she has invited guests for Wednesday and Thursday at the Browns' new summer home at Wagner Lake, near Columbus.

Leaving with Miss Jo and her mother bright and early this morning will be Sue Hardin, Gretchen Groth and Susie Salter.

AS A matter of fact the day already has arrived when we may speak of an event planned for Aug. 19—it is the marriage of Mrs. Dorothea Miles of Albuquerque, N.Mex., to James R. Edmiston, son of Mrs. A. R. Edmiston of Lincoln, and the late Mr. Edmiston.

The wedding will take place in the patio of Arrowhead Springs Hotel, San Bernardino, Calif., at 4 o'clock on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Edmiston's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Arnot Folsom, will leave for San

RETURNING home on Monday evening were Judge and Mrs. Frederick W. Messmore who had been spending three weeks in Idaho and California—The travelers went from Lincoln to Pocatello, Idaho, where they were the guests of their son and daughter-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. John Messmore, and their family.

Plan Program Series

Life members of the Lincoln Woman's Club have their own monthly meetings during the club year and for the new season beginning in September, the group has planned a program featuring a series of guest speakers.

The group's leader, Mrs. E.M. Bair, has announced that the opening meeting on Sept. 17 will be highlighted by a talk, "Challenge of Rehabilitation," to be given by Chaplain Robert J. Kees and Mrs. Kees. On Oct. 15, Mrs. Fern Hubbard Orme, former Lincoln city councilwoman, will speak on "Women in Government."

Discussing the Nebraska Committee for Youth on Nov. 19 will be former Senator Hazel Abel, chairman of the Governor's committee, and the Dec. 17 meeting will feature "A Christmas Story," by Mrs. C. E. A. McKim. Miss Marjorie Barstow will present her Music Box Dolls in a program on Jan. 21, and a book review by Edith Hilton will highlight the Feb. 18 meeting.

The group will be entertained by the Latvian Dancers directed by K. Bumanis on March 18, and the annual recognition party on April 15 will feature a talk,

"Because He Rose," by Mrs. Donald T. Waggener, a member of the division.

The theme of the life division for the year will be, "Strive to do thy duty; then shalt thou know what is in thee." Goethe, and officers of the group will be Mrs. Bair, leader; Mrs. Fred W. Johnson, assistant leader; Mrs. Anna M. Crowley, secretary; and Mrs. W. H. Osborne, treasurer.

Members of the reception committee will be Mrs. L. E. Williams, Mrs. H. C. M. Burgess and Mrs. Nellie Abbott; and in charge of the group's programs are Mrs. G. F. Hamilton and Mrs. W. D. Way.

Representing the group on the club's ways and means committee will be Mrs. Robin R. Reid, and in charge of the recognition party are Mrs. Donald T. Waggener, Mrs. Guilford E. Abbott and Mrs. Thad W. Bean.

Other committees include the social committee, Mrs. R. W. Jackson, Mrs. H. E. McCormick and Mrs. William T. Damkroger; telephone, Mrs. E. W. Rowe, Mrs. A. A. Ault, Mrs. Louis E. Meier, Mrs. Rosa Meelching; and project, Mrs. T. W. Van Andel, Mrs. J. Lloyd McMaster and Mrs. Luella Frendrich Sawyer.

Off On A Vacation

Off on Tuesday morning for a well earned vacation was Rae Jean Dell, 11-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dell, who has gone to Charlotte, N. C. to spend three weeks as the guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Boyd and their family.

Normally school is over and vacation begins early in June for all fifth-grade-going into sixth grade youngsters. But for Rae

Jean this summer was the exception. The young lady was one of 23 fifth grade students who, because of their very high IQ, were chosen for a brand new experiment during a six weeks period at University High School. But school was over at the week-end, and Rae Jean packed her bag for what she knew would be a wonderful vacation—even if she did make the trip by plane alone.

From Pocatello Mrs. Messmore went on to Los Angeles for a visit with her brother and his family, and while there the family group was completed with the arrival of Mrs. Messmore's sister, Mrs. Lois Klick of Decatur, Ill.

Judge and Mrs. Messmore were accompanied on their trip by Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Raynor.

Twenty guests have been invited for the luncheon, and the bride-to-be will be presented with a hostess gift.

Next Tuesday evening Miss Carter will again be an honoree when Miss Dorothy Beechner is a dinner hostess at Hillcrest Country Club. Dinner places will be arranged for eight.

HAPPY we are that we had no party planned at the University Club during August—The club, it seems, will be closed tighter than a drum from Aug. 4 to Aug. 13—After that it will open just a crack to let the men in for lunch in the card room, and perhaps the men's lounge—and the women for lunch in the ladies' lounge.

But we hear all sorts of things are happening up on the 12th floor during this period—kitchen repainted, equipment remodeled and such and things.

Bridge Club Plans Meeting

The regular meeting of the Lincoln Duplicate Bridge Club will be held Wednesday evening at the Lincoln Hotel. Playing will begin at 7:30 o'clock.

Madam Chairman

LINCOLN Woman's Club luncheon, 12 o'clock to 12:30 o'clock at the club house.

A Summer Visitor

A guest in Lincoln for the remainder of the summer is Miss Jane Echols of Las Vegas, Nev., who arrived last week to visit her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Craig. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Echols, Lincoln, Jane spent the early part of the summer attending camp in Wyoming, where she had ample opportunity to pursue her favorite pastime, horseback riding. Jane's companion is the Craig's West Highland terrier, Snifter.

Mrs. JayCees Activity

Although the members of the Mrs. JayCees are planning no regular meeting of the organization during the month of August, the various interest groups will continue their activities during the coming weeks.

The bridge groups will meet on Monday and Tuesday of next week. Meeting at 8 o'clock, Monday evening, will be group II, which will be entertained at the home of Mrs. Gene Ingram, 5344 Summer; group IV, at the home of Mrs. Gilbert Eagle, 5540 Normal; and group V, at the home of Mrs. Douglas Koser, 4127 Mohawk.

Meeting Tuesday evening, Aug. 7, will be bridge group I, at the home of Mrs. Francis Rheinschild, 1920 So. 51st; and group III, at the home of Mrs. Willard Beckman, 1045 So. 34th.

Mrs. Richard Vesteka, 4701 High, will be hostess to the sewing and crafts group this month when she entertains the members at 8 o'clock, Tuesday evening, Aug. 21.

The reading and dramatics group plans an evening at the Hayloft Summer Theater on Monday evening, Aug. 27. The members will meet first at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Richard Vesteka, 4701 High.

Mrs. JayCees golfers will continue their morning sessions at the Pioneers Park course on Aug. 7, 14, 21 and 28.

Suburbia

No one has more fun than we do—especially on those treks we take into Suburbia where, we hope, we have made many new friends—where we always are meeting new and charming people—and where there never is any let-up in activity.

This is Wednesday, of course, the morning of our visit in Country Club Terrace. We found that Country Club Terrace shares a common interest with all of Suburbia—and the city at large, we might say—vacations.

Perhaps one doesn't call a week-end trip a vacation, but it helps. At least Mr. and Mrs. Don Bryant and their son, Billy, feel refreshed after their jaunt to Oakland the past week end. Mr. and Mrs. Bryant and their son were the guests of Mrs. Bryant's father, Frank Peden, and her grandmother, Mrs. Emma Peden.

Also out of town last week end were Mr. and Mrs. Byron Darrington and their son, Mark, who spent the Friday-to-Sunday period with Mrs. Darrington's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Milne, in Omaha.

But not all of our Country Club Terrace news this morning is devoted to vacationers and week-end jaunters—although sometimes an echo of a vacation winds its way into other news—Take Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Vogt and their family, for instance. We could just tell you that the Vogts are home from their vacation—but that wouldn't be the whole story—When Mr. and Mrs. Vogt and their children did return home they almost immediately welcomed house guests—Mrs. Richard Mitchell and her two young daughters, Debbie and Sherry, of Waco, Tex. Capt. and Mrs. Mitchell and their family are former residents of Lincoln, having resided here while Capt. Mitchell was stationed at the Lincoln Air Force Base.

Needless to say when she returned to a wide circle of friends Mrs. Mitchell was honored at numerous informal courtesies during her stay.

Mention of the Vogt family reminds us that one of its members celebrated a birthday recently—The birthday celebrant was Sue Vogt who entertained 14 of her sub-teen friends from Merle Beattie school at a hot-dog feed on Tuesday evening, July 24, at VanDorn Park. Following the picnic supper the group returned to the home of the hostess for an evening of bingo.

Then we learned of another birthday party in the Terrace area—It seems that on Wednesday, July 25, small Peggy Wirth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Wirth, celebrated her third birthday anniversary when she entertained seven of her contemporaries at an afternoon ice-cream-and-cake party at her home.

Right now we want to take time out to say goodbye to Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dryden, Jr., who by this time are on their way to their new home in Omaha where they will reside at 842 No. 77th St.

Marriage Solemnized

At a service solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, June 17, Miss Joan Joyce Broughton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Broughton of Haigler, became the bride of Lester Moulton of Corinth, Vt. The lines of the ceremony were read by the Rev. Albert W. Hill, pastor of the Evangelical United Brethren Church of Champion, in the presence of members of the family and a small group of friends, and Mrs. Arthur Silvester, pianist, played the wedding music. Mrs. Silvester also accompanied Donald Broughton, vocal soloist.

The matron of honor and her sister's only attendant was Mrs. Guffie Groseclose who wore a ballerina-length frock of pink taffeta and net fashioned with a brief bolero jacket of the taffeta. Her headress of pink net was trimmed with small pink blossoms, and she carried a bouquet of white carnations. Serving Mr. Moulton as best man was Elroy Broughton, brother of the bride.

The bride's gown of white lace and tulle over taffeta was accented by a short-sleeved bolero of taffeta. The lace of the strapless bodice extended below the waist into a scalloped peplum flaring widely over the full tulle skirt, and her illusion veil was held by a cap of lace patterned with pearls and sequins. She carried a white Bible marked with a cluster of pink carnations.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, after which the couple left for Corinth, Vt., to reside.

A graduate of Union College in Lincoln, the bride has been a member of the public schools faculty at Omaha and at Lansing, Mich.

Murals In The Rough

It was an exciting moment for Mrs. C. J. Mortenson of Ord when Artist Terence Duren (left) showed her the rough sketches of the mural she has commissioned him to do for a new building at Nebraska Wesleyan University.

Mr. Duren, who calls Shelby home and who definitely is gaining fame for his excellent work, was in Lincoln Tuesday, and with Mrs. Mortenson was one of a group of art devotees who planned a luncheon at Hotel Cornhusker.

Mrs. Mortenson is the former Carol White, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. C. C. White who, during their lifetime, were enthusiastic supporters of Nebraska Wesleyan University.

In the picture with Mr. Duren and Mrs. Mortenson is R. B. Johnson, business manager at Nebraska Wesleyan.

NEWS ABOUT TOWN

WE HAVE a variety of dates ringed on our calendar—and most of them involve August news, so the new month comes to us well fortified with activity of one kind and another—Oddly enough, all the little calendar rings have to do with events that are scheduled for later in the month—but the day will come when we can talk about them.

AS A matter of fact the day already has arrived when we may speak of an event planned for Aug. 19—It is the marriage of Mrs. Dorothea Miles of Albuquerque, N.Mex., to James R. Edmiston, son of Mrs. A. R. Edmiston of Lincoln, and the late Mr. Edmiston.

The wedding will take place in the patio of Arrowhead Springs Hotel, San Bernardino, Calif., at 4 o'clock on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Edmiston's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Arnot Folsom, will leave for San Bernardino on Aug. 17 to attend the wedding.

THIS morning we have news of a young-set house party—The hostess is Miss Jo Brown, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John A. Brown, III, and she has invited guests for Wednesday and Thursday at the Browns' new summer home at Wagner Lake, near Columbus.

Leaving with Miss Jo and her mother bright and early this morning will be Sue Hardin, Gretchen Groth and Susie Salter.

RETURNING home on Monday evening were Judge and Mrs. Frederick W. Messmore who had been spending three weeks in Idaho and California—The travelers went from Lincoln to Pocatello, Idaho, where they were the guests of their son and daughter-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. John Messmore, and their family.

From Pocatello Mrs. Messmore went on to Los Angeles for a visit with her brother and his family, and while there the family group was completed with the arrival of Mrs. Messmore's sister, Mrs. Lois Klick of Decatur, Ill.

Judge and Mrs. Messmore were accompanied on their trip by Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Raynor.

THERE ARE busy days ahead for Alpha Chi Omega's Miss Cecilia Carter whose marriage to Harold G. Rowe will take place on Monday, Aug. 13.

The current series of courtesies for Miss Carter began last Saturday evening when Mrs. Jack Curtis entertained 25 of the bride-elect's old high school crowd at a miscellaneous shower at her home.

And complimenting Miss Carter this evening will be Miss Mary Knorr whose guest list will include Miss Carter's six bridal attendants. The evening will be spent informally and the soon-to-be-bride will be presented with a crockery shower.

ON MISS Carter's Saturday calendar is the mother-daughter party for which Mrs. Dean Eneyart and her daughter, Sandra, will be hostesses when they entertain at a luncheon at their home.

Madam Chairman

AFTERNOON
Lincoln Woman's Club luncheon, 12 o'clock to 12:30 o'clock at the club house.

EVENING
Live Y'ers Club, 6 o'clock at the YWCA for transportation to picnic supper at Bethany Park.
Tops Club, 7:30 o'clock meeting at the Lincoln YWCA.
Lincoln Duplicate Bridge Club, 7:30 o'clock at the Lincoln Hotel.

A Summer Visitor

A guest in Lincoln for the remainder of the summer is Miss Jane Echols of Las Vegas, Nev., who arrived last week to visit her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Craig. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Echols,

Twenty guests have been invited for the luncheon, and the bride-to-be will be presented with a hostess gift.

Next Tuesday evening Miss Carter will again be an honoree when Miss Dorothy Beechner is a dinner hostess at Hillcrest Country Club. Dinner places will be arranged for eight.

HAPPY we are that we had no party planned at the University Club during August—The club, it seems, will be closed tighter than a drum from Aug. 4 to Aug. 13—After that it will open just a crack to let the men in for lunch in the card room, and perhaps the men's lounge—and the women for lunch in the ladies' lounge.

But we hear all sorts of things are happening up on the 12th floor during this period—kitchen repainted, equipment remodeled and such and things.

Bridge Club Plans Meeting

The regular meeting of the Lincoln Duplicate Bridge Club will be held Wednesday evening at the Lincoln Hotel. Playing will begin at 7:30 o'clock.

Candlelight Wedding

MRS. JAMES ALAN CRAMER

The altar of St. Paul's Church, Episcopal at Manhattan, Kan., was lighted by white candles and appointed with spreading arrangements of white daisies and gladioli for the marriage of Miss Diana Fellows, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Hurley Fellows of Manhattan, to Lt. James Alan Cramer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cramer of Wayne, Mo.

Mark E. Cramer of Wayne and the late Mr. Cramer, on Saturday, July 28. The ceremony was solemnized by the Rev. James Leach in the presence of 150 guests, and Mrs. Owen Sherman, organist, played the wedding music. Preceding the service, Mrs. Sherman also accompanied Pvt. James Velle, the vocal soloist.

Attending her sister-in-law as matron of honor was Mrs. Hurley F. Fellows of Manhattan, and the bridesmaids were Miss Carol Frohn, Miss Sharon Greiveldinger and Mrs. Kenneth Long, all of Manhattan. Fashioned identically of French blue crystalet, the attendants' frocks were designed with snug basques and full skirts sashed with tucked crystalet. Petals of crystalet sprinkled with pearls formed their caps which were brimmed with stiffened blue tulle, and they carried cascades of white and pink daisies. Miss Patricia Louise Fellows was her aunt's flower girl, and the ringbearer was Robert C. Mullen, Jr., of Lincoln, nephew of the bridegroom. Serving as best man was Hurley F. Fellows, brother of the bride, and the corps of ushers included Robert C. Mullen, Lincoln, Lt. Carl S. Jaeger, Ft. Carson, Colo., and Lt. Willard B. Esplin, Ft. Riley, Kan.

For her wedding, the bride chose a gown of white lace over silk taffeta. Tiny pearls traced the rose motif of the lace to frame the shoulder-wide, V décolletage, and the long, tapered sleeves were snugly buttoned at the wrists. Beneath the elongated bodice, the soft folds of the skirt flared into hemline width, and a Victorian coronet of jeweled lace held to the head her veil of imported illusion. She carried a pin-nacle arrangement of pink roses and stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

Following the reception, which was held at the Ft. Riley Officers Club, the couple left for a honeymoon trip to Miami Beach, Fla. Mrs. Cramer wore for traveling a sheath frock of brown and white printed cotton with a matching stole and white accessories.

Lt. and Mrs. Cramer will reside at Manhattan, Kan., where the bridegroom is stationed with the Army at Ft. Riley. A former student at the University of Nebraska, he is a graduate of the University of Iowa and a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Sigma Delta Chi journalism fraternity. Mrs. Cramer is a senior at Kansas State College, Manhattan, and a member of Alpha Xi Delta sorority.

The Brides' Book Says:

Naming her bridal attendants this morning is Miss Marilyn Preusse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Preusse and a member of Chi Omega at the University of Nebraska, whose marriage to Joseph B. Schieffelin of Denver will be an event of Saturday, Aug. 11.

As her matron of honor, Miss Preusse has chosen Mrs. Wilbur Preusse of Redwood Falls, Minn., and the maid of honor will be Miss Laura Ann Harden of Washington, D. C. Attending her aunt as flower girl will be Miss Barbara Preusse of Redwood Falls, and Scotty Preusse, the bride-elect's nephew, will be ringbearer.

Lighting the candles for the 4:30 o'clock ceremony, which will take place at the First Presbyterian Church, will be Mrs. Paul Thompson.

John Babick of Raton, N. M., will be best man, and seating the guests will be Harold Hunt, Hans Brucker and Dr. Fletcher Pomerooy, all of Denver, and Wilbur Preusse of Redwood Falls.

Miss Marjorie Speidel, an August bride-elect whose wedding will take place on Saturday, Aug. 11, was the surprise honoree Monday evening when members of Delta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi, young business women's sorority, entertained at a picnic supper. The party was held at Peter Pan Park, and following the supper, a canned goods shower was presented to Miss Speidel.

Also a recent honoree was Miss Jean Donahue, whose marriage to William Frappia will be an event of Sept. 1. In courtesy to the bride-to-be, Mrs. Richard Smith entertained 16 guests last Wednesday evening at the home of her mother, Mrs. Francis Adams. During the evening, a miscellaneous shower was presented to Miss Donahue by the guests, all former high school classmates of the honoree.

Miss Donahue, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Donahue, has announced that her wedding will take place at 10 o'clock in the morning on Saturday, Sept. 1, and that the service will be solemnized at Sacred Heart Church.

Revealing plans for a late summer wedding is Miss Beverly Ann Anthony, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Anthony, who has chosen Wednesday, Aug. 29, as the date for marriage to Roy Gene Dill Jr., of Quine, Ala. The service will be solemnized at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon at the American Lutheran Church.

Off On A Vacation

Off on Tuesday morning for a well earned vacation was Rae Jean Dell, 11-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dell, who has gone to Charlotte, N. C. to spend three weeks as the guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Boyd and their family.

Normally school is over and vacation begins early in June for all fifth-grade-going into sixth grade youngsters. But for Rae

Jean this summer was the exception. The young lady was one of 23 fifth grade students who, because of their very high IQ, were chosen for a brand new experiment during a six weeks period at University High School. But school was over at the week-end, and Rae Jean packed her bag for what she knew would be a wonderful vacation—even if she did make the trip by plane alone.

Mrs. JayCees Activity

Although the members of the Mrs. JayCees are planning no regular meeting of the organization during the month of August, the various interest groups will continue their activities during the coming weeks.

The bridge groups will meet on Monday and Tuesday of next week. Meeting at 8 o'clock, Monday evening, will be group II, which will be entertained at the home of Mrs. Gene Ingram, 5544 Sumner; group IV, at the home of Mrs. Gilbert Eagle, 5540 Normal; and group V, at the home of Mrs. Douglas Koser, 4127 Mohawk.

Meeting Tuesday evening, Aug. 7, will be bridge group I, at the home of Mrs. Francis Rheinschild, 1920 So. 51st; and group III, at the home of Mrs. Willard Beckman, 1045 So. 34th.

Mrs. Richard Vesteka, 4701 High, will be hostess to the sewing and crafts group this month when she entertains the members at 8 o'clock, Tuesday evening, Aug. 21.

The reading and dramatics group plans an evening at the Hayloft Summer Theater on Monday evening, Aug. 27. The members will meet first at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Richard Vesteka, 4701 High.

Mrs. JayCees golfers will continue their morning sessions at the Pioneers Park course on Aug. 7, 14, 21 and 28.

...Optimistic Harriman Says Many Kefauver Delegates Shifting To Him

CHICAGO (AP) — Adlai Stevenson said Tuesday he shares Sen. Kefauver's hope "that we Democrats, united by a common purpose, can soon close ranks and get on with this fateful campaign."

Stevenson's statement, read at a news conference in his downtown campaign headquarters, followed an announcement by Kefauver that he was withdrawing from the race for the Democratic presidential nomination and urging his supporters to back Stevenson.

The Stevenson statement said: "I have been trying to reach Sen. Kefauver by phone. 'I want to express to him my gratitude for this gracious and spontaneous expression of his support. He has often expressed his approval of the presidential primaries and he has been as good as his word."

"Liberal Democrat"

"I respect Sen. Kefauver as a thoughtful, liberal Democrat. We share a grave anxiety about drift at home and deterioration abroad under a faltering leadership and a divided party."

"Sen. Kefauver has expressed the hope — which I share — that we Democrats, united by a common purpose, can soon close ranks and get on with this fateful campaign."

Asked about his choice for the vice presidential nomination, in the event he wins the presidential nomination, Stevenson said, "There are a number of qualified men, and I include among those, Estes Kefauver."

However, he added "there have never been any negotiations by me (with Kefauver) or by anyone associated with me."

HARRIMAN

NEW YORK (AP) — Gov. Averell Harriman said Tuesday night he believes he will get more than half the Democratic convention delegates previously pledged to Sen. Kefauver.

Harriman expressed the view in a formal statement.

The governor said Sen. Kefauver had phoned his office here Tuesday and told his assistants that "he believed I would get at least half his delegates."

Harriman then added in his statement Tuesday night "From indications I have now received, I believe it will be more."

Kefauver, announcing his withdrawal from the race in Washington, had asked his supporters to back Adlai Stevenson.

Harriman also said in the statement.

"Sen. Kefauver's withdrawal clears the air. His delegates are now free."

"I've asked them to join me in the cause I stand for. Many have already told me they will do so."

"The issues are drawn. We can win in November if our party is true to its traditions."

SYMINGTON

ST LOUIS (AP) — Mark R. Holloran, a prime mover in the Missouri move to obtain the Democratic presidential nomination for Sen. Symington (D-Mo.), said Tuesday "it might be well now" for Averell Harriman to withdraw as a candidate.

Holloran, a close friend of former President Truman, said "If the race is over, it is over and that's all there is to it."

TRUMAN

KANSAS CITY (AP) — "It does not change my position of neutrality," former President Harry S. Truman said of Sen. Kefauver's withdrawal from the race for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Truman has refrained from expressing any preference in the race.

"If the senator from Tennessee felt that he didn't have a chance and felt he had to get out," Truman said, "that is his business. He has the right to do whatever he wants."

CHANDLER

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — Gov. A. B. Chandler said he felt his hand had been strengthened in the Democratic presidential nomination race by the withdrawal of Sen. Kefauver.

Chandler told a press conference he expected to pick up many of Kefauver's pledged delegates and had been assured of some by telephone since the senator's announcement.

"This definitely moves me up into a better position," the governor said. "For one thing, it makes me one of three candidates instead of one of four."

Telephone Property Valuation In Hall County Reduced 23%

Telephone property valuation in Hall County has been reduced by 23 per cent by the State Board of Equalization.

The reduction followed complaints by the Northwestern Bell Telephone Co. that its properties in Hall County were valued 30 per cent higher, relatively, than in other counties where it operates.

Charles Tillman, Hall County assessor from Grand Island, defended his assessment figures last week in a hearing before the Equalization Board.

Tillman said he classed the telephone property in line with public utilities in Hall County, adding he refused to go along with state assessors who adopted a formula for assessing telephone property during a fall meeting last year.

The Hall County assessor said the Northwestern assessment was based on earning power and not capital assets, which he said should be the proper method of taxation.

Fred Herrington, state tax commissioner, said the 23 per cent reduction given Hall County telephone property would compensate for the over-valuation of Northwestern Bell properties.

Rejection Requests

In other action, the State Board rejected requests for reductions in valuations on real estate in Pierce and Harlan Counties. A Harlan delegation complained last week of inequities with neighboring Furnas County.

Herrington was instructed by the Board to investigate the assessment schedule of irrigated and non-irrigated land in Harlan and Furnas Counties and help the assessors equalize valuations between the two counties before next year.

A revised report of taxable business property also was received on business property valuations in Seward County. The next big job of the State Board is to set the state tax mill levy, which Herrington said probably will be done on or before Thursday, the deadline date.

Still Critical

DULUTH, Minn. (AP) — Albert Woolson, 109, last veteran of the Civil War Union Army, remained in critical condition at St. Luke's Hospital Tuesday.

Woolson has been unconscious since early Saturday and has been receiving food intravenously. He is suffering from an acute case of lung congestion.

Meat Price Decline Brings Slight Drop In Farm Index

Lower prices for beef cattle and hogs were primarily responsible for a three point (12 per cent) decline in the index of prices received by Nebraska farmers for the month ended July 15, according to a release made by the State-Federal Division of Agricultural Statistics.

The index at 244 compared with 247 in mid-July, 1955. The all crops index jumped from 223 a month earlier to 238 on July 15, while the livestock and products index dropped nine points during the same period and was 247 in July.

Prices of all grains except wheat were higher in mid-July than a month earlier. Wheat prices were unchanged from mid-June at $1.87 per bushel, while corn at $1.49 per bushel advanced three cents. Oats and barley averaged 69 cents and 94 cents per bushel respectively in mid-July, each up four cents for the month.

Rye was one cent higher at 98 cents per bushel and grain sorghum advanced 10 cents to reach $2.23 per cwt. Prices of new Nebraska-grown potatoes averaged $5.50 per cwt. in mid-July.

A decline of $1.10 in cattle prices placed the mid-month average at $17.20 per cwt., and was responsible for most of the nine point decline in the livestock and products index.

For the U.S. as a whole, lower prices received by farmers for fruit, meat animals, and commercial vegetables were responsible for a one per cent decline in the index of farm prices.

WISHING WELL

Here is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add three. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you. BAIRIED DOWN ON THE NEWS

The Chicago and San Francisco conventions are preambles to a plebiscite. After the indictment by the partisan grand juries the case comes to trial November sixth.

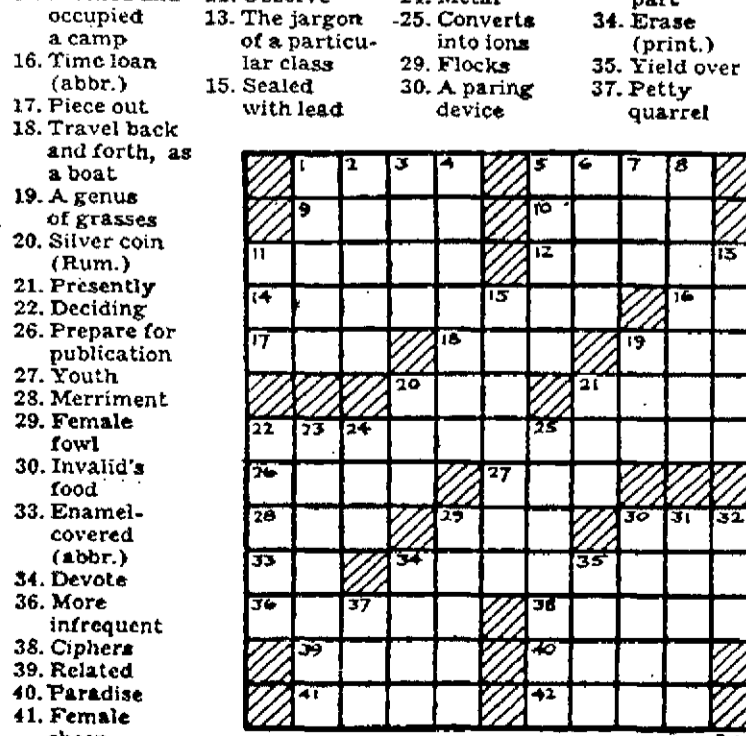

We have been exercising our equally born curiosity to find the convention cannot nominate two guys from the same neighborhood. Is the Constitution scared of getting Abercrombie and Fitch, Clayton, Jackson and Duranto or the Smith Brothers, Trade and Mark?

This codicil was written into the rules long before the amendments lumped up in the mashed potatoes. It is the consensus of second guessers that the founding fathers were scared the Adams boys of Massachusetts would hog the show like a piano in a pawnshop window.

Anywhic, the prexy and the VePee must be as unanimously

State Demo Delegates Think Stevenson Will Get Nod On Early Ballot

Members of the Nebraska delegation to the Democratic national convention generally agreed Tuesday that Sen. Kefauver's withdrawal meant Adlai Stevenson would get the nomination for president on an early ballot.

In an informal poll taken by The Star, the delegates who would commit themselves to Nebraska's 12-member delegation would probably give nearly united support to Stevenson.

One delegate, State AFL Chief Gordon Preble of Omaha, revealed for the first time who he prefers—Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo.).

Released from any obligation to follow the results of the state's preferential primary, in which Kefauver was unopposed, they were less agreed on what lay in the Tennessee senator's future.

Some speculated that he would get the vice presidential nomination and others suggested a cabinet post.

Comments by the delegates were:

Bernard Boyle of Omaha: National Committeeman and chairman of the Nebraska delegation: "It looks like the election now will be between Adlai Stevenson and Richard Nixon for President of the United States of America."

The Omaha attorney declared: "The Republicans are now demonstrating that the President's health is and will be a vital factor in the coming election. The one who is nominated vice president on their ticket is the one who will have a pretty high possibility of being President, more so now than in any other election in this country."

The national committeeman termed Senator Kefauver's action "complimentary recognition of Stevenson's ability. Kefauver, having the welfare of the country at heart, as he has demonstrated on many occasions, must have complete confidence in Stevenson's ability to completely serve the people of this country as President of the U.S."

Boyle said he was under no obligation to Kefauver, nor was he committed to anyone. He said as national committeeman he felt he should not be committed. He stated he had never talked to the delegation about it, but added he thought "all or a great many will vote for Stevenson."

State Democratic Chairman Willard Townsend of Lincoln: "This may result in Nebraska delegation conferring to decide what to do. The delegation has a disposition to put up a united front."

He pointed out that Kefauver's withdrawal releases the delegates from the moral obligation to follow the results of the state's preferential primary. Kefauver was the only Democratic presidential candidate on the ballot.

He said the conference, if held, probably would not be until the delegation arrived in Chicago for the convention.

"If Kefauver's supporters follow his leadership with the same zeal they did in campaigning for him, I think Stevenson will win on the first ballot," Townsend said.

Referring to a prediction by Columnist Drew Pearson that a Stevenson-Kefauver ticket was in the making, he said that "Kefauver had to have some assurances or he wouldn't have withdrawn at this time."

Gordon Preble of Omaha, president of the Nebraska State Federation of Labor: "Kefauver's withdrawal hasn't affected me in anyway because I'm not committed to anyone."

Preble then said, "They've been pressuring me for many months to state my choice and I guess there's no point in not saying any longer. My personal choice is Stu Symington. He has been mentioned as a dark-horse candidate, and I have no knowledge of whether or not he is an active candidate, but he is my personal choice."

Preble then emphasized again that he still is not committed to anyone.

Frank Morrison of Lincoln, head of the Kefauver campaign in Nebraska: "I think Stevenson will be nominated on the first ballot. As head of the state Kefauver organization I recommend all state delegates go united on the first ballot for Stevenson."

A. Clifford Anderson of Lincoln: "The delegation probably will be pretty much for Stevenson." He didn't think there was any "deal" for vice president and predicted an open convention for the vice presidential nomination. Anderson identified himself as a Stevenson supporter.

James G. Green of Omaha: Green, first informed of Kefauver's action by the Lincoln Star, said: "My gosh, this is a significant development." He then termed the development "the merging of causes of two great men into a single cause which might produce victory."

The Omaha attorney commented that it looked like it might be Stevenson on the first ballot, "provided the South supports him."

Green said he liked both Kefauver and Stevenson but was not committed to anyone.

Keith Neville of North Platte: Neville also learned of the action from the Lincoln Star and first said he would have "no comment." But the former governor then stated, "It's his privilege to withdraw if he wants to."

Neville said he was "committed to whoever carried the Nebraska primary." He added that while Kefauver was the only candidate on the Nebraska primary ballot, he felt obligated to be for him.

Neville then stated he was a "great admirer of Stevenson and a great admirer of Harriman."

James C. Quigley of Valentine: "I kind of expected it after Drew Pearson's prediction of it Sunday. At the time I could hardly believe it though."

Quigley said he was "absolutely uncommitted to anyone. I want to go to Chicago, look over the field, and see what is best for the good of the country and, incidentally, my party. I want to go without any handcuffs."

Robert B. Conrad of Genoa (alternate delegate expected to replace Paul Busch of Howells who has left the state): "If Stevenson has the strength he claims, this should put him in on the first ballot." He predicted a delegation "solidly for Stevenson."

"After all the bitterness of the primaries, I don't see how they can have a Stevenson - Kefauver ticket," Conrad said. He suggested Kefauver would seek a cabinet post.

Emil L. Barta of Cozad: "This will make quite a difference. Stevenson will probably get the nomination on the second or third ballot. I'm not committed yet and would like to think it over a while."

He predicted that about 10 of Nebraska's delegates would vote for Stevenson. Kefauver as vice president was discounted by Barta. He said he thought more likely that the Tennessee senator would be in line for a cabinet post.

Otto Bogner of Crofton: "I think

Kefauver has something else planned. I'm still uncommitted at this time. I'll vote for the best man who can win."
